

Argo Law BV – Tax | Associate

Argo is looking for an eager and driven junior or mid-level (0-5 years' experience) associate to join our growing tax department.

Argo offers legal services across various areas, including corporate, tax, fund structuring, dispute resolution, banking, finance & insolvency, and private clients, with a commitment to excellence, team spirit, and a sense of humor.

Our dynamic tax team, which currently comprises 11 lawyers, is growing. We handle a diverse portfolio of client work in three primary areas: (i) providing tailored tax advice to corporate clients and funds on various direct and indirect taxation matters, including R&D tax incentives; (ii) offering tax advice on M&A, fund structuring, finance, capital markets transactions, and private client matters; and (iii) supporting and representing clients during tax audits and court proceedings, including appearances before the Constitutional Court.

Profile

As a tax lawyer in our esteemed tax team, you will have the opportunity to:

- Become part of a young, dynamic and growing tax practice.
- Work closely with both Belgian and international clients, serving as a trusted tax advisor on a wide range of tax matters.
- Establish a direct working relationship with our tax partners, facilitating a steep learning curve.
- Collaborate with colleagues from various teams within our firm to work on premium market-leading M&A, fund structuring, capital markets, and finance transactions.
- Enhance your expertise as a tax lawyer through continuous knowledge sharing and meetings. Stay up to date on the latest (upcoming) developments in Belgian tax law.

To be considered for this role, we are looking for candidates who possess the following qualifications:

- A Belgian Master Degree in Law with an outstanding academic track record.
- An additional Master Degree in Tax Law or an academic curriculum with equivalent Master-level courses.
- Relevant experience in the field of tax law, commensurate with the position level (junior, mid-level associate).
- Capable of in-depth analyses and autonomous work.
- A down-to-earth mindset, team player qualities, and excellent communication skills.
- Ambition and passion for tax law, with a strong desire to grow as a tax lawyer in a professional business law firm environment.
- Fluency in English and Dutch, with proficient understanding and verbal skills in French being an advantage.
- The ability to work independently and an innovative approach to solving complex legal questions.

Why you should take the leap

- You will have the possibility to tackle legally technically challenging work, while also fostering creative thinking within a robust legal framework.
- Collaborating with esteemed professionals in their respective fields, you will have the opportunity to develop into an expert yourself.
- Our commitment to your growth includes comprehensive cross-practice training programs and regular knowledge-sharing meetings, designed to enhance your professional development.
- You will be able to build strong partnerships with clients by providing refined, yet pragmatic solutions.
- You will experience team camaraderie through our vibrant culture, which includes monthly afterwork parties, yearly associate weekend, international trips, and various athletic initiatives such as ski trips, running and cycling events, and gym subscriptions.
- Our flexibility-first approach with adaptable day planning, a casual dress code, work-from-home opportunities, and daily interactions with a diverse array of clients, partners, and colleagues.
- Enjoy a top-tier salary and ample opportunities for personal development through a perfect blend of legal and soft skill training.
