

Argo Law BV – Fund structuring | (Junior) associate

We're on the lookout for eagerly driven junior or mid-level (0-5 years' experience) to join our growing and market leading Fund Structuring department.

Embark on an exciting career journey with Argo!

Dive into the intricate process of fund structuring by advising top-tier investment funds and their managers on all corporate and regulatory aspects involved in the lifecycle of private equity, venture capital and other investment funds.

Experience Argo's culture of team spirit, humor and excellence, where your professional development will be stimulated and your skills can truly stand out.

Profile

- Master Degree in Law with an outstanding academic track record;
- Analytic mind, creative thinker and eye for detail;
- Relevant experience in corporate law, depending on level (junior or mid-level);
- Intrinsic motivation and passion for dedicated work in the realm of investment funds (specific experience with fund structuring is not required);
- Fluent in Dutch and English;
- Capable of in-depth analyses and autonomous work;
- Down-to-earth mindset, team player, and excellent communication skills;
- Ambitious with a desire to grow in a professional environment, refining skills to provide top-notch solutions for our clients.

Why you should take the leap

- The possibility to tackle legally technically challenging work, while also fostering creative thinking within a robust legal framework;
- Build partnerships with clients by providing refined, yet pragmatic solutions;
- Experience team camaraderie with monthly afterwork parties, yearly associates weekends, international trips, and various athletic initiatives like ski trips, running events, and gym subscriptions;
- Embrace a flexibility-first approach with adaptable day planning, a casual dress code, work-from-home opportunities, and daily interactions with a diverse array of clients, partners, and colleagues;
- Enjoy a top-tier salary and ample opportunities for personal development through a perfect blend of legal and soft skill training.

Curious to learn more about what makes us unique? Explore our website and seize the opportunity to show your potential by sending your motivation letter with CV. Join Argo and let your career flourish in an environment that values your growth and contributions!

