Are you a master's student in law looking to pursue advanced studies in 2025? Whether you're planning for an LLM, business school or still deciding: the Argo Scholarship gives you the opportunity to become our next grantee.

What to expect?

Participating in the Argo Scholarship isn't just about solving an M&A case. It's about stepping into the shoes of a real lawyer for a day. From negotiating and conducting due diligence to assessing risks, you'll learn how to turn theory into practice.
